

A word from G. Gordon Liddy

"People constantly ask me how, at 73, I can parachute with the Israeli military, ride thousands of miles on my Harley and have the body, according to cardiologists, of an athlete 22 years younger than I.

The answer is that I don't drink, smoke or over eat and, most importantly, I've been taking Nature's Youth products for over three years. Their beneficial effects are amazing. Congratulations on joining me on the Nature's Youth team.

Together, we are going to make the American entrepreneurial dream come true and, while we're at it, turn America's health around from obesity to fitness. Remember what President Reagan said? 'Stay the course!' We're all on the road to success, but so many step off before they get there.

Stay with me and we'll celebrate success and good health together!"
